

New Moon in Scorpio

SAT 14 NOV, 2020 • 11.07 PM (CST)
SUN 15 NOV, 2020 • 5.07 AM (GMT), 4.07 PM (AEDT)
YIN • FIXED • WATER

This lunar cycle begins with the meeting of Sun and Moon in the constellation of Scorpio.

This yin water sign represents the principle of Death & Rebirth and our need to feel transformed: to face our fears and know our own power.

Scorpio is the Scorpion, whose ability to cause death clarifies our values in an instant and brings us deeply into the present moment.

Scorpio is the Alchemist, plumbing the profane and the profound, transforming soulful 'lead' into 'gold,' finding Life in the hidden taboos and holy mysteries of the Underworld.

Scorpio is the Healer, fascinated with the secret causes of our suffering and transcendence, and ever searching for the keys to the meaning of Life, the Philosopher's Stone, the Holy Grail.

Scorpio invites us to seek out meaningful connection and embrace the intensity of the present moment.

Taurus is the sign that lies opposite Scorpio, and these two archetypes make up a yin polarity that asks: What is this incredible abundance of body and breath?
What is this dance of life and death and life again? What is this Mystery of regeneration?

Scorpio is the surrender—the stepping across the threshold into the unknown—which always precedes birth and creation (Taurus).

Scorpio is the eroticism—pure life force voltage—that infuses our present moment when we attune to the wisdom of our body, and follow our shadow and shame as a pathway home to ourselves (Taurus).

Scorpio is mistrust and manipulation when we wield our psychic abilities and our awareness of others' fears and secrets, to shore up our own power, unable to rest in the simplicity of our existence (Taurus).

PERSONAL INSIGHTS FROM THIS LUNAR CYCLE

How did you go with your intention? What did you learn by holding it this month, whether or not it came to be? What are you celebrating? What rest and recovery will you prioritise for these final few days of the cycle?

CREATIVE RESPONSE: COMING TO LIGHT

Create a series of flaps using pieces of paper sticky-taped (on one side) to your page. One each one, write down a fear that arose, or something which surfaced unexpectedly in your consciousness, this month. Underneath, write the 'antidote' or 'gift' or outcome that accompanied these fears and 'shadows.'
